

Curriculum Vitae – Dr. med. Florian Gerlach

Born in Munich, married, 2 children

Primary and secondary education in Ottobrunn, Abitur (A-levels) 1994

Medical studies at the Ludwig Maximilian University Munich

Academic internships in Munich, at the Charité hospital Berlin and at the Royal Brompton Hospital London

Scholarship holder of the Hanns-Seidel-Stiftung Munich for gifted and talented students

Clinical internship year in Munich, USA and Canada

Approbation 2002

Doctor's degree 2003, experimental doctoral thesis at the Dr. von Haunersches Kinderspital children's hospital Munich (published in The New England Journal of Medicine and The Lancet)

2003–2005 specialist medical training at the Augenklinik der Julius Maximilian University eye hospital Würzburg (Prof. Grehn)

2005 volunteer for the project SEE \(surgical eye expeditions\) – international in Tonga

From 2005 onwards further specialist training at the Augenklinik Herzog Carl Theodor eye hospital Munich (Prof. Riedel, Prof. Heider, Prof. Schönfeld) with extensive surgical training

2008–2010 senior consultant at the Augenklinik Herzog Carl Theodor

Consultancy over several years for the Krankenhaus der Barmherzigen Brüder hospital Munich

Research in the area of macular diseases (diseases of the location of sharpest vision within the retina) and glaucoma/post-operative management after glaucoma surgery

Until 2016 ophthalmological joint-practice Dr. Fischer/Dr. Gerlach in Unterschleißheim

Emphasis on refractive surgery, cosmetic and reconstructive lid surgery, intra-vitreous medical treatment of age-related macular degeneration, diabetes and blood vessel occlusion

Since 2017 consultant in own single practice in Ottobrunn
